

Fair seeking Ambassadors

By Carole Robinson
Staff Writer

The 2010 Williamson County Fair, Come Be A Kid Again, opens Aug. 6 and runs through Aug. 14. Come for the entertainment. Come for the family fun activities. Come for the rides. Come be a kid again!

Thousands of volunteers are needed to produce a successful fair, including Ambassadors who are onsite to answer questions and provide fair-goers information and directions to events, shows and demonstrations.

According to committee co-chairs, David Landrum and Joey Davis, Ambassadors are an integral part of the success of the Fair, insuring safety and lessening the frustration visitors may have in finding their way around the grounds.

Easily identified by their special mesh Ambassador vests, the volunteers will rotate short two or four-hour shifts inside the arena and outside on the Midway walking around ready with friendly smile and event schedules to assist visitors. Two-way radios will allow them to communicate with other Ambassadors and Fair personnel to ensure a fun family time for everyone.

Ambassadors should be personable and enjoy meeting and talking to people.

To volunteer to become an Ambassador, contact committee co-chair, Joey Davis at 790-5709 or joeyd@williamson-tn.org.

Contact Carole Robinson at crobinson@williamsonherald.com